

In this edition of the Beaverton Arts Commission e-newsletter:

Workshop on Grant Writing for the Arts

Held by the Westside Cultural Alliance (WCA)

Gigi Rosenberg, Presenter

Saturday, February 27, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Light snack provided

Location: Tualatin Heritage Center

Workshop Focus: To help prepare attendees to submit specific grant proposals/applications as early as this winter and spring.

Registration Fee: $30 per individual; $50 for organizations (admits up to 4). FREE for Friends of WCA. Friends contributions start at $25 per year.

How to Register and/or Become a Friend: Go to www.westsideculturalalliance.org, print out a Friends contribution form and send it and your check to WCA, P.O. Box 1092, Beaverton, OR 97075.

Space is limited. Register before February 26, 2010.

More about Westside Cultural Alliance :

Mission: The Westside Cultural Alliance (WCA) is a coalition of representatives from arts, cultural, educational, governmental, and business organizations whose mission is to increase public and private funding for and to nurture and promote arts, heritage, and humanities in Washington County.

For more information contact Vergie Ries at vergie34@aol.com

Jayne Scott

Executive Director

Beaverton Arts Commission