Beaverton's Last Tuesday Series

July 28 with Michael Allen Harrison and Julianne Johnson

Part two of the three-part celebration of great music, art and food

The Beaverton Arts Commission's Last Tuesday Series, A Celebration of Great Music, Art and Food, continues on Tuesday, July 28 from 5 to 8 p.m. in the fountain plaza at The Round, 12600 SW Crescent St. There is no admission charge.

Steinway Signature Artist Michael Allen Harrison has performed for President Clinton, Vice President Al Gore, Quincy Jones and the Dalai Lama. Julianne R. Johnson has thrilled audience for more than 25 years. Michael and Julianne will be performing songs from their new album Easy.

Local artists will have their artwork displayed throughout the plaza offering work in a variety of media including watercolors, jewelry, woven baskets, acrylics and woodworking. The following artists will participate in July: Mari Budnick, Catalina Cooper, Laura Hopper, Becky Jarvis, Denny Lumsden, Dick and Jane Millager.

Local dancers, Rene Nunez and Lori Hajarizadeh, will offer demonstrations of their skills and styles at 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. Rene Nunez is originally from Chile, where his first dance teachers were his parents. His passion for dancing comes naturally from his parents who were National Argentine Tango Dance Champions in Chile. Lori and Rene have been award-winning dance partners for about 4-1/2 years.

Local restaurants including Typhoon, Mio Sushi, and Mingo will offer indoor and outdoor dining and refreshment experiences for Beaverton Last Tuesday audiences making the entire evening a truly wonderful celebration of great music, art and food.

The Round Fountain Plaza, 12600 SW Crescent St., is located adjacent to the Beaverton Central light rail station. Parking for the event is available at The Round and in the former Westgate Theatre parking lot accessible from Cedar Hills Blvd.

Beaverton Last Tuesday is presented by the Beaverton Arts Commission and sponsored by the Beaverton Arts Foundation, City of Beaverton and the Regional Arts and Culture Council.

The Beaverton Arts Commission contributes significantly to the quality of life in Beaverton by presenting artistic and cultural events, which celebrate community values and help to connect residents to their artistic and cultural heritage.
