

In this edition of the Beaverton Arts Commission e-newsletter

Call to Artists – Request for Qualifications, City Park, Beaverton, Oregon

The Beaverton Arts Commission seeks qualifications from professional artists/artist teams for a permanent artwork in a prominent location at the heart of the city's cultural center, a relatively new and very popular park with water fountains and wooded picnic area. The site is adjacent to Oregon's best farmer's market and across the street from the Beaverton City Library. The park and its amenities are extremely successful and fully enjoyed by a culturally diverse population, and the artwork will be a significant visual landmark in the city.

The total budget is $50,000

Deadline to apply is September 30, 2009

Open to artists in the United States and British Columbia, Canada

Finalists to present proposals in December, 2009. Installation to be completed fall of 2010.

Artist and artist teams must apply using the CaFÉ (www.callforentry.org) application system. There is no application fee to use the system. Deadline: September 30, 2009, 11 p.m. Pacific Standard Time. The Selection Committee will select up to three finalists to develop a full proposal for the project. All finalist artists or artist teams will receive a stipend of $750, in addition to a travel allowance to present their concept to the selection committee.

A copy of the call is available at the Beaverton Arts Commission website at www.beavertonarts.org

Questions, contact Valerie Otani otani@easystreet.net or call the Beaverton Arts Commission at 503-526-2288.

Jayne Scott
Executive Director
Beaverton Arts Commission